

Roxane de Bilderling

Born on 04.04.1974

Married, 4 children

Professional experience:

Since Aug 2019: Ambassador of the Kingdom of Belgium to Japan

2017 – 2019: Director in the Private Office of the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs

2014 -2017: Ambassador, Embassy of Belgium to Kenya, Somalia, Eritrea, Comoros, Seychelles and Madagascar. Permanent Representative to UN-Environment and UN-Habitat

2012-2014: Advisor on the African Policy, Private Office of the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs

2011: Counsellor, Embassy of Belgium to the Democratic Republic of the Congo.

2007-2011: Counsellor, Embassy of Belgium to South Africa, Zimbabwe, Swaziland, Namibia, Botswana, Lesotho and Mozambique

2002-2007: First Secretary, Embassy of Belgium to Kenya, Somalia, Eritrea, Comoros, Seychelles and Madagascar. Deputy-Permanent Representative to UN-Environment and UN-Habitat

2000-2002: Trainee in the diplomatic service. Attaché in the office of the Minister of Foreign Affairs.

1996-2002: Free-lance interpreter and teacher of French as a foreign language.

Studies

Master in Conference Interpretation (English – Spanish – French)
Complementary Diploma in European Studies

Languages

Mother language: French

Other languages: Dutch, English, Spanish (basic notions of Kiswahili)