

Wim Eynatten

International Tax Partner, Deloitte Belgium, Brussels Office

Wim heads the Japanese Desk at Deloitte Belgium and has more than 20 years of experience in International Tax Law and Taxation of Corporations, and combines many years of experience at a Big 4-Organization with relevant experience in a Magic Circle law firm. Prior to joining Deloitte, he worked as a tax lawyer at Linklaters and was admitted to the Brussels Bar in 2003. Wim joined Deloitte as a Director in 2007 and made Partner in 2009.

Wim has significant experience in corporate tax law, international tax planning and restructurings, R&D and IP tax structures, holding structures, finance tax structures, M&A and transfer pricing. He has many Japanese clients in various industries and assists them with their Belgian and cross-border tax issues. He has spoken at various seminars and conferences and is the author of various publications in the field of taxation.

Wim is Chairman of the Legal & Tax Committee of the Belgian-Japan Association and Chamber of Commerce (BJA) and also a member of the Executive Committee and Board of Directors of BJA. In this capacity he works closely with BJA member companies, the Belgian government, employers, employee associations and all business in Belgium in view of improving the overall climate for doing business in Belgium.

Wim holds a Law Degree of the Catholic University of Leuven, a Tax Degree of the Brussels Fiscale Hogeschool and a LL.M in International Taxation of the University of London, Queen Mary College. Finally, Wim is admitted to the Belgian Institute of Accountants and Tax Consultants as a certified Tax Consultant.